In what ways did your team work well together?

We were able to communicate and coordinate the experiment resulting in a smooth operation. Moreover, we collaborated and shared the workload in analyzing the data.

What sorts of challenges did you have working together? How could you address these challenges moving forward?

Slow communication for progress on the analysis. In the future, we could communicate beforehand an estimate of how long the analysis would take and send a message in group chat if progress is slow.

(Only if this is a team you've already worked with) What did you do differently from last week to improve your collaboration?

We made a group chat to text about updates or progress and to share files and information.

Are you happy with what your team achieved in this lab? Why or why not?

Yes, as I felt that we were able to become better friends as we collaborated together and splitting the workload.

Additional comments on your evaluation or anything else you would like to share:

None.
